Finding God—March 29th

Sunday 4:30-5:30 pm

Whatever your passion, you can find God there. Music can be a wonderful connection to the Divine and when used to create an environment of mediation, it can offer us insight and peace.

Seder Supper

SEDER SUPPER

On Sunday, March 22nd at 6:00 our EYC will host the Youth of St. Luke's United Methodist in a program led by Chris and Sonya Aycock about the Seder Supper. We will begin with a light supper followed by the program. All Holy Trinity Youth are encouraged to bring a friend on that evening to share this unique experience. We will finish the evening at 7:30 pm and parents can pick up their youth in Parish Hall. SEDER Supper- a ceremony that commemorates the Exodus from Egypt and includes the reading of the Haggadah and the eating of symbolic foods, generally held on the first night of Passover by Reform Jews and Jews in Israel and on both the first and second nights by Orthodox and Conservative Jews outside of Israel.

Rachel Held Evans Defends Leaving

Evangelicals For Episcopalians

Religion News Service | By Jonathan Merritt

(RNS) Rachel Held Evans has grown into a powerful voice in American Christianity, first as the author of "Evolving in Monkey Town" and later with the New York Times best-seller "A Year of Biblical Womanhood." Those who follow her writings often note that her thinking has become increasingly progressive, especially on hot-button theological issues such as gender and sexuality.

That shift culminated in her leaving evangelicalism for the Episcopal Church.

Next month, Evans will release "Searching for Sunday: Loving, Leaving and Finding the Church," a book that oscillates between stinging critiques of American Christianity and prescriptions for how she believes believers can more faithfully participate in church life. In an interview with Religion News Service, she talked about the key to revitalizing the church and defended her exit from evangelicalism.
